

Beivars, chair

Gianluca Cozzarolo

EDITION
Delvis (Un)Limited

Beivars chair has a burnished iron frame with a soft lining in fabric of leather which wraps around the armrests and backrest of the chair. Gianluca Cozzarolo took inspiration from the rationalist design of the XX century and interpreted it with a fresh, modern twist.

DETAILS

FRAME:	Metal
FINISHES:	Black iron and burned brass
UPHOLSTERY:	Available in fabric or leather
SIZE:	L: 66 W: 58 H: 76 cm L: 25.98" W: 22.83" H: 29.92"
NET WEIGHT:	12 kg, 26.45 lb
YEAR:	2021
PRICE:	Upon request Price may vary depending on fabric selection

QUOTE:

"A roomy and inviting padded chair, with a simple, slender steel frame that supports organic, voluminous cushions upholstered in high-quality leather or fabric, creating excellent ergonomic comfort."

Exhibition:

Metallica

NOV 24 // MARCH 25

Delvis Unlimited is pleased to introduce Metallica a new exhibition curated by Matteo Cibic, showcasing an interpretation of metal and its characteristics of ductility, malleability, reflection and shine, developing new forms of dialogue and symbiosis among different talented artists.

Metallica as a contemplation of energy translated into a contemporary aesthetic code embracing both Art and Design.

BIO DESIGNER:

Gianluca Cozzarolo is a selftaught designer and creator, he started his career in Italy collaborating with different design and furniture brands. Passionate about restoration and modern art his design research expresses in different ways approaching various materials combining minimalist aesthetic with a handcrafted artisanal production practice.